

INSECT SORT ANSWER KEY

Insects (Class: Insecta)

Ants are insects! There are more than 12000 species of ants all over the world.

Praying mantises are insects! They are carnivores, or meat eaters, that hunt other insects.

Bees are insects! They can be found on every continent except Antarctica.

Dragonflies are insects! They are almost always moving, some can fly as fast as 20 MPH.

Non-Insects

Scorpions are in the class Arachnida, like spiders they have eight legs.

Millipedes are members of the class Diplopoda. They have two pairs of legs for each body segment.

Crabs are in the class Malacostraca. They have ten legs, some of which can be adapted for swimming!

Spiders are arachnids. They can be found on almost every continent and include more than 35000 species!

Snails are in the class Gastropoda. They are related to clams, squid, and octopuses!