

APD update 18-07

January 27, 2023

Through the APD social media platforms there has been posts and videos posted to increase awareness of online and telephone police reporting for applicable incidents/events. We frequently remind the public through news releases and social media posts on how to report crime in Albuquerque.

Videos have been posted to social media platforms to educate the public on when to call 911 or 242-cops.

Posts have been made to social media platforms on how the public can file a report online or through phone. A link to the online reporting portal has also been shared to social media.
