

CREATING POSITIVE CHANGE

Northwest Area Command Community Policing Council April 19, 2023 Agenda

CODE OF CONDUCT

Be respectful. Focus on topic. Don't interrupt. Be concise. Speak with good intentions.

- I. Welcome/Call to Order -Welcome to guests from the both Northwest and Southwest Areas
- II. Roll Call/Quorum – Panel Introduction
- III. Approval of Agenda
- IV. Approval of March minutes
- V. Commander David Saladin Northwest crime update and overview of various initiatives that are underway – bring your questions!
- VI. Commander Rene Barraza Southwest Crime update and overview of focus and initiatives underway. All questions are welcome.
- VII. K-9 Squad – The Albuquerque Police Department K-9 Squad will come and present their mission and role in crime fighting. Dogs will be there so maybe they will demonstrate some of their skills. In person attendance is recommended to get the full experience and to meet the dogs up close and personal!
- VIII. Ken Cox, Sr. Area Loss Prevention Manager for Ross Dress for Less -New Mexico will join us to discuss the newly evolving challenges of securing and protecting retail establishments, customers and associates. Ken is founding member of the Albuquerque Retail Assets Protection Association as well as current President of the Rancho Sereno Neighborhood Association. Ken also spent 30 years with Target Corporation as a District Assets Protection Leader throughout the Southwest..
- IX. Public input and questions – suggest topics you would like covered in the future and any crime related issues your neighborhood is facing.
- X. Our next meeting will be held May 17th in person or by zoom. We are tentatively planning on a presentation by AT&T and the Proactive Response Team. Please send comments or suggestions for presentations to Karen Schwartz by email at kschwartz74@comcast.net.