About the Southeast Command Area CPC

The Southeast Community Policing Council (SECPC) was established in 2014 to facilitate, improve communications and assist in establishing constitutional community policing for the citizens of the City of Albuquerque with the Albuquerque Police Department.

Purpose

The purpose of the Southeast Community Policing Council is to promote and maintain positive, respectful, supportive, and cooperative interactions between members of the community and the Albuquerque Police Department to ensure constitutional community policing is established and sustained.

Membership

The Southeast Community Policing Council consists of between 7 and 10 members.

Achievements

Our community discussions have been robust, lively and very informative. We will continue to have authentic open discussion with our community.

Challenges

Despite our ongoing attempts to publicize our meetings we are having low attendance. We try to be topical and ask for feedback and suggestions, but so far, we have not received any. The Southeast Area Command is huge and widely varied, at times we do not seem to be reaching everyone. We do send our meeting notifications to neighborhood associations and a few people participate as a result.

Lessons Learned

We have come to realize how important it is to meet and strategize our monthly meetings ahead of time. At times it can be challenging to orchestrate times and days. Despite our outreach attempts it has proved to be challenging to increase attendance to higher numbers.
