VII. Discussion proceeded about whether this committee should bring forward one proposal or two, based on the different populations to be reached by different educational approaches.

Katrina Hotrum asked the committee to consider how to reach millennials with messaging about suicide prevention or improvement of self-regulation. Committee was encouraged to think broadly about prevention. Committee member Rosario offered to help the committee identify future speakers about bullying, cyber bullying, EMDR, or other topics. She encouraged the committee to consider children as populations to be reached for CET, for example.

Meeting adjourned at 4:40pm.
