

Pre-approval Review Team Meetings

PRT meetings are an opportunity for developers, engineers, architects, and others to get answers from City staff in relevant Planning Department divisions about development proposals related to City policies, standards, and processes.

The Planning Department has revamped the PRT system to cut down on applicants' wait time and ensure that more valuable information is provided with each meeting.

Find more information and application materials at the link below. PRT meetings are ongoing and by application only.

Apply here:

<https://www.cabq.gov/planning/urban-design-development/pre-application-review-team-meetings>