

Northeast Area Command Community Policing Council
(NECPC)
Guidelines, Adopted November 2016

I. Mission

- A. The mission of the Northeast Area Command Community Policing Council (NECPC) is to promote and maintain positive, respectful, supportive and cooperative interactions between members of the community and the Albuquerque Police Department.

II. Goal

- A. The goal of the Council is to engage in detailed and meaningful discussions to identify concerns, problems, successes and opportunities within the Northeast Area Command (NEAC) and to tailor solutions specifically aimed at the needs of the neighborhoods and area command.
- B. The role of the Council is advisory only. At no time shall any Member of the Council represent themselves as acting on behalf of the City of Albuquerque and the City shall not be bound by any recommendation.

III. Origin

- A. All six of the Albuquerque Community Policing Councils were implemented in direct response to the Department of Justice Consent and Settlement Agreement (CASA), specifically paragraphs 266 through 270.

IV. Structure and Composition

- A. The Council shall be composed of three to nine voting members.
- B. Representatives of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Northeast Area Command shall serve as advisors to the Council.
- C. The meetings will be held at locations accessible to the community.
- D. The City's Alternative Dispute Resolution Office will provide facilitators to act as recorders and provide administrative support. They will assist primarily with the resolution, notice, agenda and minutes.
- E. Meetings will be scheduled for a maximum time of 90 minutes with at least 20 minutes set aside for public input in some form. Meetings may continue after 90 minutes at the council's discretion.
- F. A quorum is established by the presence of one half of voting members.

V. Qualifications

- A. Each voting member appointee to the NECPC shall reside or work in the City and within the boundaries of the Northeast Area Command. No member of the immediate family of any elected City official shall be appointed as a voting member. "Work" location shall be defined as the address where an individual would receive work related mail.
- B. Any criminal conviction will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis by the full council in an executive session. A conviction or deferred sentence shall not be an automatic disqualifier.
- C. Each voting member shall become familiar with the Conflict of Interest provisions in the City Charter. Art. XII Section 4. Any conflict or failure to disclose a potential conflict shall immediately disqualify the voting member.

VI. Appointment

- A. Community members interested in becoming voting members of the Council shall submit an application to the APD Community Outreach Director via the site: <http://www.cabq.gov/mayor/police-outreach/community-policing-council-application>.
- B. The APD Community Outreach Director will submit all applicant information to the NECPC Chair for consideration by the Council.
- C. The Council shall interview each candidate in Executive Session.
- D. Candidates shall be appointed by a majority vote of the Council.
- E. Candidates shall be notified by the Council chair or his or her appointee as to the outcome of the appointment process.
- F. Candidates must successfully pass an APD background check. Background checks may be completed as part of an application to the Citizen Police Academy or as a part of a request for a ride-along.
- G. The Chief of Police or his or her representative shall select APD representatives for the police advisory positions.

VII. Term

- A. Each new voting member shall be appointed for either a two or a three-year term in consultation with the new voting member and the existing council. Every effort will be made by the council to accommodate a new members requested term and exceptions may be made on a case-by-case basis to allow shorter terms. The council will attempt to stagger terms so as to leave a mix of experience levels on the council at any given time.
- B. Members shall be limited to a five-year appointment on the council within a rolling ten-year period.

VIII. Removal/Resignation/Vacancy

- A. Members of the Council are expected to exhibit the highest ethical and professional standards. See the NECPC Code of Conduct for members.
- B. The Council may remove a voting member upon recommendation by a 2/3 majority of the voting members of the Council for a violation of the Code of Conduct.
- C. A member may be removed after missing two consecutive unexcused meetings or a majority of the previous six meetings. Executive session attendance shall not apply to this provision.
- D. Vacancies shall be filled through the identified Appointment process with replacements designated to complete the term of the vacant member.
- E. Council Officers who are removed or resign from the Council during their term shall be replaced by the election process outlined herein at the next regular meeting of the Council where a quorum is established.

IX. Election of Council Officers

- A. By majority vote, the members of the Council shall select a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, and any other Council Officers deemed necessary.
- B. APD representatives shall not serve as Council Officers.
- C. The Chairperson and a Vice-Chairperson shall be elected for a term of one year, and may serve additional terms if elected.
- D. Elections shall generally occur at the first meeting of the calendar year where a quorum is established, or at the next monthly meeting after a vacancy when an officer position occurs.

X. General Members

- A. Any member of the community or a representative of a stakeholder group may become a general member of the Council by requesting membership status.
- B. The Council will maintain a record of general members contact information.
